Shea designs two new Minneapolis restaurants

MINNEAPOLIS (June 1, 2009) – Shea, Inc., a Minneapolis-based marketing and design firm has begun design work on two new restaurant concepts to be debuted later this year in Minneapolis.

Shea is currently working on Birch's restaurant, an urban outpost of the Long Lake concept of the same name. It will occupy a ground level space in the recently redeveloped Eitel Building Apartments in the Loring Park neighborhood. The 3,900 square foot space is being converted to a full-service restaurant and bar with a large four season patio that overlooks the park. Zeman Construction Company will be starting construction in June with plans to open in August.

Shea has also been developing a new restaurant concept with restaurateur Gene Suh in the former site of JP's American Bistro at 2937 Lyndale Avenue South. Master Construction Company will begin construction on this yet-to-be-named neighborhood bar and eatery in June and the doors will open in late August.

Shea, Inc. is a marketing and design firm integrating expertise in marketing, architecture and interior design. Shea blends diverse perspectives, skills, cultures and knowledge into solid creative strategy for clients. Shea's client list includes Macy's, TCF National Bank, Morton's The Steakhouse, Wells Fargo and Midcontinent Communications.
